

LEADERSHIP, MEASUREMENT & THE MORAL PURPOSE OF EDUCATION

Presented by Dr Reverend Chris Evans

On
Tuesday 4th June 2019
In the School Chapel
At 16:00

During this academic year the Deputy Headmaster, Reverend Dr Evans, has been undertaking research on behalf of the Church of England Foundation for Educational Leadership and will be presenting some of his findings to a select audience, including academics from Oxford University, local educational and church leaders, governors, staff, friends of the School, ORs and parents. The Deputy Headmaster's presentation will include opportunities for discussion, and will be followed by time for questions and refreshments.

All are welcome particularly those with a background or interest in leadership in industry, in ethics or in education. We have reserved 100 seats for parents and alumni.
