

2021 READING SCHOOL / READING FOUNDATION McILROY ESSAY COMPETITION

To win the £250 cash prize, take the challenge and write an essay with the title:

Happiness is...?

Objectives and criteria:

This competition aims to reward one essay written by a Reading School student which, in the opinion of the judging panels, displays the best combination of:

- Flair for expressing complex ideas about a subject in simple terms.
- A logical and well-developed argument: it must have a starting idea, develop over a series of topic paragraphs, and reach some kind of clear resolution.
- Evidence of verve: a spirit of enthusiasm for the subject and the task, and the process of writing about them.
- Passion for sharing a love and understanding of the subject in question.
- Ingenuity in coming up with exciting and original ways to tackle matters of current affairs and general knowledge.

Who can enter:

Any student, from any Year group, who is studying at Reading School during the 2020 - 2021 academic session can enter.

How students enter the competition:

You have the opportunity to be inspired by the question: “Happiness is...?” and apply to it anything you feel is of value which you’ve learned in your study of an academic subject, pursuit of sport, enjoyment of a personal hobby, or just general knowledge and interest in current affairs.

Have a think: what kind of happiness are you interested in writing about? What makes you happy: your family, tutor group, your school lessons, your sports club, your hobby? What do you see that makes other people happy? What role does happiness have in 2021: is it important or have the issues we have all faced in the past eighteen months make it seem trivial? How has what you have learned and experienced in 2021, both in and out of school, prepared you to make a positive difference to the happiness of the world around you? Which particular causes or places or ideas motivate you with examples of the effect of happiness?

Essays must be no fewer than 1,000 and no more than 2,000 words long. They must be word processed and saved as a Microsoft Word document and feature a specific word count. When entrants email their essay to Mrs Lidbetter, they must ensure they have not put their name on the actual Word document.

Entrants must email their essay to Mrs Lidbetter in the School Office at: secretary@reading-school.co.uk. Each entrant will receive back from her a random identification number, and the essay will then be forwarded anonymously to the judging panel. This is the only way essays can be entered for the competition. The deadline is 8.25am on Monday 13th September 2021.

Judging process:

All submissions will be marked anonymously to guarantee impartiality.

A panel of school staff is responsible for the initial judging process. Depending on the number and quality of the submissions, that panel will then submit a short-list of nominated essays to go forward to a final judging group. The final judging panel will then assess the nominated essays to choose the overall winner.

The judges' decisions are final and not negotiable. The judging process will be subjective and based on collective opinions regarding rank order. No 'marks' will be made on, or awarded to, any essay, and all submissions will be retained by the school for further use. Entrants should not expect a specific personalised response to their submission.

Regulations:

Entrants must write their submissions entirely independently. No consultation with, or involvement of, staff at the school is permitted.

All use of research and academic sources and materials must be correctly referenced and credited in a bibliography (use the Harvard referencing guide available on the LRC Sharepoint page). Plagiarism of any kind will result in disqualification.

For additional guidance, please contact Mr Baldock at rbaldock@reading-school.co.uk. No other member of staff will be able to offer advice on how to enter.

Failure to follow these guidelines could result in your submission not being considered by the judging panels.

Follow this simple procedure:

- Decide what "Happiness is..."
- Word process a response on your own.
- Write no fewer than 1,000 words and no more than 2,000 words; clearly state your total at the end of the essay.
- Make sure any external sources have been correctly referenced and credited in a bibliography.
- Do not put your name on the Word document, but do clearly state the word count.
