Policy on Dealing with Discriminatory Incidents

1. The Legal Background

The Equality Act 2010 defines a number of “protected characteristics”, and prohibits conduct which constitutes discrimination, harassment, or victimisation against persons who share such “protected characteristics”. The “protected characteristics” (which are referred to as equality characteristics in this policy) are:

- age,
- disability,
- gender reassignment,
- marriage and civil partnerships,
- pregnancy and maternity,
- race,
- religion or belief,
- sex, and
- sexual orientation.

2. The Principles

- Record all incidents of discrimination, harassment, or victimisation against any person on the grounds of having an equality characteristic
- Inform the parents of all those involved
- Inform the parents of the actions taken to deal with the incident
- Involve other agencies when necessary and appropriate

At school level this will include the following actions.

- Assigning the responsibility for harassment monitoring to a senior member of staff. This member of staff will be the Deputy or Assistant Headteacher. He or she will:
 - keep a separate incident record book in which all incidents of discrimination, harassment, or victimisation are logged
 - Inform all staff of the steps to be taken in the case of a reported incident.
 - organise the quick removal of discriminatory graffiti
- Ensure that all relevant data is collected on a formal basis

- Assign a member of the Governing Body to take overall responsibility for monitoring discriminatory incidents policy and procedure.
- The School will inform the Police of any criminal discriminatory activity such as physical assault, damage to property and distributing discriminatory literature.

3. How to record and report a discriminatory incident

The School will adopt a flexible approach, whilst recording, reporting and monitoring discriminatory incidents.

The following form will be used to record all alleged discriminatory incidents. This form initiates the investigation process.

If the allegation is unfounded, the form is filed away

This form is for internal use only and must stay in the school
