

Reading School Schools of Sanctuary Exhibition

During Refugee Week 2023, Reading School is celebrating the contributions, creativity and resilience of refugees and people seeking sanctuary.

Led by the team of Schools of Sanctuary Ambassadors we will be exhibiting a range of pieces produced by people seeking sanctuary including sculpture, painting, photography and more.

The work will be displayed for a week to celebrate the contribution to people seeking sanctuary to the UK and share their experiences with our student body.

The event will be open to parents, artists, friends of the school and the public on Tuesday 20th June from 6pm-7.30pm. Entry is free.

Address: Reading School, Erleigh Road, Reading, RG1 5LW - Please scan the QR code for the location.

There is limited parking on site so please use public transport or park locally where possible.

If you would like further information or are are interested in displaying work at the exhibition please contact Kees Luteijn - kluteijn@reading-school.co.uk

