

Supporting Families Through Prevent List of organisations and charities

<https://actearly.uk>

Working with other organisations, the police protect vulnerable people from being exploited by extremists through a Home Office programme called Prevent.

Dedicated safeguarding website and advise line.

We can help if you act early. You won't be wasting our time and you won't ruin lives – but you might save them.

The logo for internet matters.org consists of the words 'internet' and 'matters.org' in white, lowercase letters, stacked vertically on a bright green rectangular background.

www.internetmatters.org/issues/radicalisation

Information for parents who want their children to be safe online. This website gives expert support and practical tips to help children benefit from connected technology and the internet safely.

- Help with online issues
- How to report something
- Help with setting controls and privacy
- Home schooling tips for parents

The logo for the Groundswell Project features the words 'GROUNDSWELL' and 'PROJECT' in white, uppercase letters, stacked vertically on a teal rectangular background. The letters are stylized with small white lines extending from them, suggesting movement or sound waves.

<https://www.groundswellproject.org>

Groundswell Project finds community organisations, connects people, and amplifies positive voices to build stronger communities against hate.

Supporting Families Through Prevent List of organisations and charities

<https://familiesforlife.org.uk>

Families for Life is an independent and confidential counselling service for people affected by complex life circumstances and the people who care about them.

<https://www.thinkuknow.co.uk>

Thinkuknow is the education programme which protects children both online and offline.

The website allows you to explore one of the six Thinkuknow areas for advice about staying safe when you're on a phone, tablet or computer.

It is split into six different categories and is aimed at all ages:

- 4-7 years
- 8-10 years
- 11-13 years
- 14+
- Parent / Carer
- Children's Workforce

Supporting Families Through Prevent List of organisations and charities

educate.against. hate

<https://educateagainsthate.com>

Government advice and trusted resources for schools to safeguard students from radicalisation, build resilience to all types of extremism and promote shared values.

- Classroom resources
- Training for staff
- Government guidance
- Report a concern

<https://parentzone.org.uk>

The experts in digital family life. Support for families, teachers and pupils.

<https://www.saferinternet.org.uk>

UK Safer Internet Centre, where you can find online safety tips, advice and resources to help children and young people stay safe online.

- Resources for young people
- Parents and Carers
- Teachers and Professionals

Supporting Families Through Prevent List of organisations and charities

<https://www.childline.org.uk>

Direct counselling and advice for children on a wide range of issues.

NSPCC

<https://www.nspcc.org.uk>

Information, support and advice for anyone who is worried about a child

The logo for VotesforSchools, featuring a large, stylized checkmark icon in pink and purple to the left of the text "VOTESFORSCHOOLS" in a bold, black, sans-serif font.

<https://www.votesforschools.com>

VotesforSchools is an award-winning platform giving your students a voice on the issues that affect them the most, as well as supporting you to consistently embed British Values and Prevent across your school.

VotesforSchools provides weekly zero-prep packages for Primary, Secondary and Colleges created by teachers. This includes:

- Whole school assembly, tutor-time session and full lesson
- Curriculum map showing weekly coverage of British Values and Prevent
- Cross-curricular planning ideas and parent information sheet
- Online voting platform that captures students voice

Supporting Families Through Prevent List of organisations and charities

<https://www.ltai.info>